Once you have defined both a problem and a solution that you wish to propose, write your paper as a grant proposal designed to persuade a funding agency to support your proposal. Be sure to include a statement of the problem, a needs assessment, and a specific proposal.

Starting point = problem + solution

Need to check grant format

Propose solution — I've done that!

Purpose + Audience

Good — list of required sections