

Chart 9: KWL+

practice it Using KWL+ (Part 1)

The KWL+ reading strategy is explained on p. 000 of your print book. Try your hand at this strategy with David J. Flaspohler’s article, “In Hakalau, a Modern Success Story” (you’ll find this article on p. 000 of your print book). Fill out the “K” and “W” columns before reading the article. Once you complete the reading, fill out the last two columns.

K What do I know about the topic?	W What do I want/expect to learn about the topic?	L What did I learn about the topic?	+ What questions do I still have about the topic?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Hakalau sounds Hawaiian. I haven't been there, but I have been to Hawaii and there are lots of unique plants and birds there.</li> <li>I think a lot of birds started becoming endangered because of tourism.</li> <li>“Avian” means bird, I think.</li> <li>There are lots of endangered animals in the world like the polar bear, panda bear, and Bengal tiger.</li> <li>I think the bald eagle is endangered too.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Are some birds endangered? Why?</li> <li>Where do the birds live?</li> <li>How many are left?</li> <li>Is there still hope for this species of bird?</li> <li>What can be done to help save the bird?</li> <li>What other birds might be endangered in Hawaii?</li> <li>What/where is Hakalau?</li> </ul>
