

INSTRUCTOR: I should mention, you don't have to cook your meal entirely on your car. I have often precooked my meal at home. This is especially advisable for something like, say, a whole fryer chicken or Cornish hen. You can use your car as a basic food warmer, as well, which is ideal for picnics close to home.