

WHERE TO GO FOR HELP

AT YOUR COLLEGE

VISIT . . .

Academic Learning/Skills Center

Counseling Center

Financial Aid and Scholarship Office

Career Center

Fitness Center

IF YOU NEED HELP . . .

reading textbooks, taking notes, and studying for exams.

dealing with time management, stress management, or money problems related to compulsive shopping or gambling.

applying for scholarships, grants, and loans.

finding a job, preparing résumés, or developing interview skills.

keeping up an exercise routine.

ONLINE

GO TO . . .

Budget Wizard:
cashcourse.org

Free Application for Federal Student Aid:
fafsa.ed.gov

FastWeb:
FastWeb.com

Bankrate:
bankrate.com

IF YOU NEED HELP . . .

creating and managing your budget. The National Endowment for Financial Education (NEFE) offers this free, secure, budgeting tool.

applying for financial aid. The online form allows you to set up an account, complete the application electronically, save your work, and monitor the progress of your application.

looking for free scholarship and discovering sources of educational funding you never knew existed.

understanding credit card interest rates, fees, and penalties. This free Web site provides unbiased information about the interest rates, fees, and penalties associated with major credit cards and private loans. It also provides calculators that let you determine the long-term costs of different kinds of borrowing.

MY COLLEGE'S RESOURCES
