

WHERE TO GO FOR HELP

AT YOUR COLLEGE

VISIT . . .

Writing Center/Academic Learning Center

Library

Departments of Speech and Communications

Student Activities

IF YOU NEED HELP . . .

writing or revising your paper.

researching your topic for a paper.

finding resources and specific courses to help you develop your speaking skills.

learning and practicing speaking skills. When you become active in student organizations, especially those like the student government association and the debate club, you will have many opportunities for speaking in front of a group.

ONLINE

GO TO . . .

The University of Iowa's History Department, which offers tips on common writing mistakes:

<http://clas.uiowa.edu/history/teaching-and-writing-center/guides>

American Psychological Association:

<http://www.apastyle.org/learn/faqs/index.aspx>

Toastmasters International:

<http://www.toastmasters.org/tips.asp>

Purdue University's online writing lab MLA:

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>

Purdue University's online writing lab APA:

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>

IF YOU NEED HELP . . .

finding writing tips.

with answers to the frequently asked questions about APA style.

finding speaking tips.

using MLA citation style.

Using APA citation style.

MY COLLEGE'S RESOURCES

---

---

---