

MAN: If your car is in good shape, meaning you have it serviced regularly and you fix anything that needs repair, you do not need to worry about your food taking on exhaust fumes. All fumes from your engine should be coming out of your muffler. If exhaust is coming from your engine, you've got trouble.