

PRESENTER: Over the past century, there have been and continue to be, many different theories about why we dream. In 1899, Sigmund Freud, the famous psychoanalyst, said in his book, The Interpretation of Dreams, that dreams are a disguised fulfillment of a suppressed wish.