Ex 26.5

1. Freedom of the press is one of the freedoms of expression that are protected by the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. It allows people to publish even unpopular political ideas without government censorship. This freedom is limited only if it is likely to produce lawless actions.
2. Private physicians tend to offer a higher level of care and a broader range of technologically sophisticated diagnostic tests than do medical clinics, which often serve uninsured patients.
